"The names of our children with Zemmour in power"

On the 11th September 2021, on the set of France 2, the far-right polemist Eric Zemmour, said the if he became, president it would be prohibited to call your son "Mohammed".

If he were the head of the country, the far-right journalist would like to "restore the law of 1803", which obliged French citizens to choose their children's names only among those appearing on calendars or in ancient history.

"The hell of Travis Scott"

On the 5th November 2021, in Houston, Texas, a festival was held by the 30-year-old Texas rapper Travis Scott. A total of 50 000 people were present and the festival, sold out, was to continue throughout the weekend. But around 9 pm the crowd began to rush to the front of the stage causing panic and the first injuries. More than 360 police officers and 240 security guards were mobilized, but despite this, a large crowd movement caused the death of eight people and many injured, including 12 in serious condition. This is not the first time a concert has ended dramatically.
